The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a treble clef. It consists of six systems of music, each with a measure number at the beginning. The notation includes notes, rests, and guitar-specific symbols such as fret numbers (0, 1, 2, 3, 4) and a capo sign (a horizontal line with a vertical bar) at the start of the first system. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the sixth system.
